DEFENDANTS' FIRST AMENDED ANSWER TO PLAINTIFF'S FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT

Defendants Nelson Martin d/b/a Liberty Ridge Farm, Liberty Ridge Farm, Eastern Pennsylvania Mennonite Church and related areas, and Mennonite Messianic Mission of the Eastern Pennsylvania Mennonite Church (hereinafter collectively "Defendants") submits the following Answer to the Complaint filed by Plaintiffs D.C., R.M., and T.R., a minor, by J.R., Guardian.

PARTIES

1. Defendants are without sufficient information to admit or deny this pleading and leave Plaintiffs to their proofs.
2. Defendants are without sufficient information to admit or deny this pleading and leave Plaintiffs to their proofs.

3. Defendants are without sufficient information to admit or deny this pleading and leave Plaintiffs to their proofs.

4. The foregoing averment is not directed toward Defendants and therefore no response is required.

5. The foregoing averment is not directed toward Defendants and therefore no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Defendants vehemently deny making threats related to accusations in the Complaint, or otherwise.

6. The foregoing averment is not directed toward Defendants and therefore no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Defendants contend that they are presently prejudiced by Plaintiffs proceeding anonymously.

7. Denied. Defendant Nelson Martin (hereinafter “Nelson”) is not doing business as Liberty Ridge Farm (hereinafter “Liberty Ridge”), and strict proof thereof is demanded at time of trial.

8. Admitted.

9. Denied as to the legal conclusion that Nelson is Principle and/or Owner. It is hereby further denied that Liberty Ridge and Nelson should be referred to collectively. Accordingly, all responses to averments that contain “Liberty Ridge” will not include admissions regarding Nelson individually.

10. Denied. The Eastern Pennsylvania Mennonite Church does not operate as a business, nor is it an entity that can sue or be sued.

11. Admitted.

12. Admitted.

13. The foregoing averment is not directed toward Defendants and therefore no response is required.

14. Denied as to the characterization that the Mennonite Messianic Mission of the Eastern Pennsylvania Mennonite Church (hereinafter “Mission”) directs all of the Eastern Pennsylvania Mennonite Church’s (hereinafter “the Church”) activities.

15. Denied to the extent that this averment contains a legal conclusion. It is admitted that Liberty Ridge is a home for Mennonite boys and young adult male members who were troubled and have special spiritual, emotional and social needs.

16. Admitted.

17. Admitted.

18. Denied to the extent that his averment contains a conclusion of law. To the extent a response is required, Liberty Ridge is registered with the USDOT.

19. Denied as “mission agency” is an ambiguous statement. As such, strict proof thereof is demanded.

20. Denied. The mission does not direct the day-to-day activities and strict proof thereof is demanded.

21. Denied. The Church does not “direct” or have “final authority” and strict proof thereof is demanded.

22. Denied. The Church does not control all aspects of the lives and businesses of its members, and strict proof thereof is demanded.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

23. Denied as a conclusion of law to which no response is required.

24. Denied as a conclusion of law to which no response is required.

25. Denied as a conclusion of law to which no response is required.

FACTS COMMON TO ALL PLAINTIFFS

26. Admitted.

27. Defendants are without sufficient information to admit or deny this averment as they are presently unaware of the identities of the Plaintiffs.

28. Admitted.

29. Admitted, with qualification. The families of the Residents pay monthly for the expenses associated with the boys' residence at Liberty Ridge, as with any other similar facility.

30. Denied as a conclusion of law to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, there is no "labor" taking place in which a reasonable individual would expect to be compensated.

31. Denied as a conclusion of law to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, there is no "labor" taking place in which a reasonable individual would expect to be compensated. By way of further response, Defendants deny any implication that the money was being "retained" for any sort of nefarious gain.

32. Denied as a conclusion of law to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, there is no "labor" taking place in which a reasonable individual would expect to be compensated. By way of further response, Defendants deny any implication that the money was being "retained" for any sort of nefarious gain.

33. Denied as to the ambiguous characterization of "work." The residents performed activities in accordance with the stated purpose of the facility and had a structured schedule to better improve their spiritual and behavioral growth.

34. Denied as to the characterization of “labor.” It is also denied that the residents were not given any free time or time to rest.

35. Denied as to the characterization of “labor.” It is also denied that the residents were not given any free time or time to rest.

36. Denied. All school-aged residents were engaged in schooling.

37. Admitted.

38. Denied, as Plaintiffs are collectively referring to all Defendants, despite the individual being the House Parent for Liberty Ridge only.

39. Admitted.

40. Denied as to the characterization of “at all times.”

41. Denied as stated. Liberty Ridge provides spiritual and behavioral growth to its residents, which is why the residents’ guardians voluntarily brought each resident to the facility. As with any troubled teen facility, poor behavior results in consequences. However, Liberty Ridge strictly denies that the residents received consequences for trivial behaviors or activities such as “not run[ning] fast enough.”

42. Denied as stated. Liberty Ridge provides spiritual and behavioral growth to its residents, which is why the residents’ guardians voluntarily brought each resident to the facility. As with any troubled teen facility, poor behavior results in consequences. However, Liberty Ridge strictly denies that punishments lasted for an inappropriate amount of time.

43. It is denied that Liberty Ridge acted in any sort of inappropriate manner with their consequence structure, and strict proof thereof is demanded.

44. It is denied that Liberty Ridge acted in any sort of inappropriate manner with their consequence structure, and strict proof thereof is demanded.

45. It is denied that Liberty Ridge acted in any sort of inappropriate manner with their consequence structure, and strict proof thereof is demanded.

46. It is denied that Liberty Ridge acted in any sort of inappropriate manner with their consequence structure, and strict proof thereof is demanded. By way of further response, it is specifically denied that residents were tied up, restrained or dragged.

47. Denied. Liberty Ridge did not withhold any necessary treatment or medications.

48. Denied. The residents of Liberty Ridge have never been physically or mentally abused while at the facility.

49. Denied. The residents of Liberty Ridge have never been threatened with abuse while at the facility.

50. Denied. The residents of Liberty Ridge have never been improperly threatened by Liberty Ridge.

51. Denied. Liberty Ridge never restrained, abused, or threatened the residents and strict proof thereof is demanded.
